Students in junior high through college are invited to be campers at the Third Annual IGNITE YOUR FAITH Teen Camp!

Adults age 20 and over are invited to participate as counselors.

COOL LOCATION

Mile High Pines Camp Ground is in the San Bernardino National Forest. View the lodge and amenities online at www.milehighpines.com.

COOL ACTIVITIES

Develop friendships with like-minded Christians while having fun with basketball, volleyball, canoeing, swimming, crafts, ping-pong, fozzball, an archery range and other exciting activities — including the famous Challenge Course with a rock climbing wall and zip line. Plus, the camp is allowing us to bring air soft and/or paint ball guns again to be used on the range.

COOL SPEAKER

Joe Wells is back by popular demand! For the past decade, he has devoted himself to full-time ministry. He completed his Masters in Ministry at Freed Hardeman University in 2008, the same year he became Editor of the Focus Press publication Kaio: The Christian Magazine for Teens. Joe often travels with his wife, Erin, and their children, Colton, Michala and Camden. He is a down-to-earth and engaging speaker who is committed to the Lord and to seeking His truth. You will be blessed by meeting the Wells family!

HOT TOPICS

Camp will be lots of fun, but it will also be a chance for teens to get serious about their faith. The theme for this year is RAISE THE BAR. What does that mean? Joe breaks it down like this:

Lesson One: Background of The Teenager (The history of the word “teenager” its meaning in America)

Lesson Two: Raise the Bar in the Family (what God truly expects from teens in the family unit vs. what society expects)

Lesson Three: Raise the Bar in the Community (what God expects from teens in the community vs. what society expects)

Lesson Four: Raise the Bar in the Church (what God expects from teens in the Church vs. what society expects)

Cost $225 (includes meals, accommodations and t-shirt)
